INDROTEK Engages CORE IR for Public Relations, Shareholder Communications, and Social Media Management

Jun 17, 2026

VANCOUVER, British Columbia, June 17, 2026 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- INDROTEK Inc., an autonomous systems company operating across defense, critical infrastructure and commercial markets, today announced that it has retained CORE IR to lead its investor relations and strategic communications initiatives, supporting the Company's efforts to enhance market visibility, strengthen stakeholder engagement and advance its capital markets strategy.

Indrotek CEO Darren Miller commented, "We believe CORE IR's integrated communications approach will play an important role in helping us articulate the strength of our platform, our execution strategy and the opportunities ahead. As we continue to execute on our growth strategy and prepare for our anticipated transition to the public markets, we remain focused on increasing awareness of Indrotek's unique combination of AI, robotics, autonomous systems and communications technologies. We look forward to working with CORE IR to communicate our long-term vision and engage effectively with investors, partners and key stakeholders."

CORE IR will focus on expanding market awareness for Indrotek, conveying Indrotek' solutions, business model, and development plans to target audiences, and providing public relations and digital communications services. CORE IR, a boutique Investor and Public Relations, Digital communications, and strategic advisory firm, specializes in leveraging effective investment, growth, and exposure strategies for small to mid-sized publicly traded and privately held companies through an integrated approach to relationship development and corporate communications.

"Indrotek represents a compelling combination of advanced technologies, experienced leadership and significant market opportunity," said Scott Gordon, Co-Founder and President of CORE IR. "As the Company advances toward its next stage of growth, our objective is to help ensure its story is communicated with clarity, consistency and credibility while fostering meaningful engagement with investors, partners and key stakeholders. We look forward to working alongside the Indrotek team to build a communications platform that supports its long-term strategic objectives."
